Bonnie and Ben:

You should receive a certified letter today along with a copy of the Hearing Examiner's proposed order in the DELTEL case. Please be advised that it contains an incorrect website for the various Commission reporting forms. It has the word "state" referred to in the website that is not accurate. Attached is a corrected version of the proposed order without the word "state" in the website reference. The transmittal letter will give you ten days from receipt to take exception to, file briefs, or file requests for oral argument before the Commission with regard to the written proposed order. Please take the same length of time to take whatever action that you may deem necessary, but be aware that I have already corrected the incorrect website reference as shown on the attached proposed DELTEL Order. If there are any questions about this matter, please do not hesitate to let me know.

Thanks,

David Butler

Hearing Examiner

David,

I didn't have any problems with the order either. Thanks.
